NEWS LETTER FROM STATE DEPARTMENTS

COLUMBUS, OHIO—The meeting of members of County Boards of Elections to be held in the Hotel Desher Ballroom in this city on Thursday and Friday, May 22nd and 23rd, called by Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown, for the purpose of instructing those present on the provisions of the new Election Code, will not only be helpful and perceptive to the officials but will also have a far-reaching effect throughout the state to all voters who desire to further enlighten themselves on election matters. This will be brought about by broadcasting a general review of the Election Code by Secretary Brown on Friday evening May 23rd, from 7:15 to 7:45 o'clock, over Station WLW of Cincinnati, under the auspices of the School of The Air, through the courtesy of the State Department of Education. All election officials of Ohio, and there are more than 54,000, are invited to "listen in," as well as candidates and the general public, to the first radio cast of this nature possibly ever held in the United States.

Supervisor of Executive Buildings, R. C. McCollum has announced plans for the beautifying of the State House park and gardens at the executive mansion occupied by Governor and Mrs. Myers Y. Cooper. He is having 23,000 plants trucked in from green houses of state institutions at Gallipolis, Athens, Massillon and the Deaf and Dumb School for the Blind, State Hospital and Feeble Minded of the Capital City, utilizing cuttings of plants from last year, without a dollar of expense to the tax payers of the state. There will also be a large consignment from the green house on the State Fair Grounds, comprising plants of different varieties. They will be placed in ten large flower beds in the State House grounds, the mansion gardens and 75 boxes for window ledges and terraces, embracing a veritable mass of colors when the plants are in bloom.

The criminal population at the Ohio Penitentiary has been reduced from 4,978, the high water mark several weeks ago, to approximately 3,000 at the present time. This was accomplished by transferring inmates to other state penal institutions and by the parole route. While quiet regins and the men have returned to work, prison discipline is maintained by keeping the militia men on duty. Prison guards and soldiers are stationed every hundred feet on the outside of the walls. This is deemed necessary after the munity of the inmates following the prison fire. All shops with one exception are operating as usual and the men are now locked up at night in their cells. Rehabilitation work is being pushed to rapid completion and the big prison should be fire proof.

Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown has notified all Boards of Elections that declarations of candidacy must be filed by 6:30 o'clock, Friday evening June 13. Nomination by petition must be filed by Friday September 6, being sixty days previous to the date of election, which is Tuesday, November 4. The polls will be open at 8 o'clock A. M., and kept open at 6:30 P. M., Eastern Standard time, unless there are voters waiting in line to cast their ballots, in which case the polls shall be kept open until such waiting voters have voted.

Fewer fatalities in the state were reported in the month of March than in either January or February, according to Superintendent Thomas P. Kearns of the Division of Safety and Hygiene of the Industrial Commission of Ohio. The number was 93, which was 18 less than January and four less than February. Thirty-seven counties reported fatalities, 13 having the first for the year, leaving 23 with clear records for the first three months.

Cedarville Girl Heads Restaurant Group in Dayton

Turnbull and the magazine is "The Restaurant Man," published at New York and read by restaurant people all over the world. Miss Turnbull is president of Blue Moon Tea Room, Inc., a large and beautiful restaurant at 22 North Ludlow Street, Dayton, Ohio. The magazine story dealt specifically with the important place women hold in the restaurant industry. A very fine likeness of Miss Turnbull occupied a prominent place in the story, and an interesting account of the successful history of the Blue Moon Tea Room was given. Mention was also made of Miss Turnbull's prominent participation in Dayton, Ohio and National Restaurant Association activities. She is president of the Dayton Restaurant Association, one of the largest groups of its kind in the country.

Cedarville College Beats Antioch 5-4

On Wednesday, May 14, the Yellow-Jackets again successfully defended the Orange and Blue. Coach Borst is justly proud of the college ball team and especially Garlough who pitched this game and struck out 10 Antioch batters including every player except Pavey the pitcher. Pavey the Antioch hurler struck out only 3 Cedarville batters. C. C. out hit Antioch with 10 hits against the opponent's 8 hits. Sabadosh made a pretty home run by knocking the ball out over the left fielder. The hitting of the day was led by Garlough with 4 hits, 2 of which were doubles.

The game was close being tied from the 5th inning until Antioch scored 2 runs in the 9th, from two clean 2 base hits. Things looked bad for the Yellow-Jackets, but they came through with their usual pluck and fighting spirit. Wendall Boyer knocked a good 2 bagger. "Shorty" Kinnison pinch hit, knocking a single and "Wendy" came in. The score was then 3-4. Rife was hit by a pitched ball and got to first. Walter Boyer then sacrificed advancing "Shorty" and Rife. Tanner then knocked a hot grounder out to second base which Toomire tried to handle, but alas Tanner made it safe to first and both Kinnison and Rife came in making another feather in the cap of the Cedarville College diamond nine.

Trophy Case

The department of Athletics of Cedarville College is starting a trophy case. The initial souvenir is the ball with which Cedarville beat Wilmington on Friday, May 9, at Wilmington. Worthy of second place in the trophy case is the ball from the 5-4 victory over the old rival Antioch.

The Yellow-Jackets have started a winning streak and have lots of opportunities for this new hobby of collecting trophies from ball games.

HOW IT PAYS TO FOLLOW A POLITICAL BOSS

Fayette county has operated for many years under political boss leadership. It was that kind of leadership the people thought they wanted. From the days of the famous riot in Washington C. H., the people of that county have depended on Harry and Mal Dougherty for political leadership. During most of that time few men have held office in Washington C. H. or in the county that have not been the servants of the political bosses.

The closing of the Dougherty bank a week ago brings a new chapter in the social, economic and political history of that county. The closest political friends now find for the first time they are on equal footing with the average citizen when it comes to counting the "leaves and fishes." Their leader has fallen and will be powerless to give them preference in the division on settlement day. With many their deposits were accepted only an hour or so before the "closing sign" was placed on the door near the noon hour.

Not only individuals but the different taxing districts in the county find the situation anything but pleasant. County funds, city funds, township funds and school funds, all entrusted to the care of the bank under the control of the "boss," are tied up and government in each district can only function as best it can without money. Public officials are said to have depended on their superior for the safe keeping of public funds and good bonding security is lacking as the law requires. It was a case of political ruin as the penalty. The cry now is "too much boss." But tears cannot repair the damage.

LOCAL COUNT SHOWS DROP IN OUR POPULATION

Cedarville had a population according to the census of 1920 of 1028. There is no longer any speculation as to the returns for 1930 if unofficial reports are true. This time our population will not exceed 950 according to an unofficial survey.

This will be surprising news to many people, some of whom felt the count this year would exceed that of ten years ago. To others it was no surprise. Drift of population from the smaller communities the past ten years has been much greater than ever before and the city returns speak for themselves.

Dayton failed to reach the 200,000 mark according to reports and Cleveland will drop from fifth to seventh place in the roll of cities in the country. Development of community centers outside of the city limits has held down city growth. With good roads and automobiles the adjoining villages have grown to small cities.

In a canvass this week Cedarville has some seventy-five inhabitants that live within two hundred feet of the village boundary line. These people have the advantage of our fire protection and electric lights and yet do not pay one cent toward the village up-keep. The Herald advocated many months ago that council should proceed at once to annex this territory. Many of these people wanted in yet no definite move was ever made to bring it about.

The result is the town now is listed in the lowest bracket, that less than 1,000 population. This would not have been the case had council taken the initiative and brought about annexation as most of our citizens desired. Not only population would have been added but our tax duplicate would have been increased.

The Herald has come into possession of information that a number of young people that make their home here and are usually home over the week-end have not been included in the count here due to the fact their names were given in the town or city where employed. As we understand the ruling of the department such persons were to be counted in their home towns. Locally we find outside teachers who are employed here and living elsewhere were not counted here in compliance with instructions. We have also learned that one couple visiting in Florida for only a few weeks were counted there yet they reside here and own property. Another instance was that of a local minister who was spending sometime with his daughter in Pennsylvania was listed in that state and yet has his home here.

The Herald entered a protest to Supervisor Story in Springfield yesterday that may yet bring about credit to the village for local people that have been listed in other towns and states.

ECHO OF THE K. K. K. CAMPAIGN

There is no road so long that a turn does not show up somewhere. This time echo of the past comes to the people of Greene county and insight is gained as to the K. K. K. night-rider campaign when certain campaign literature was passed over the county a few years ago. Murder will out is an old saying and was never truer than in a case that was before a recent Greene county grand jury when a secret indictment was returned against Meredith Burns, 18, whom it is charged embezzled $66.60 from the Chew Publishing Company. However the publishing company is not the complainant and is not a party to the action as the bill had been paid more than a year ago by Horace Anderson, who loaned the money to Burns for that purpose.

It now develops that Burns was one of the parties that did the Paul Revere stunt in passing out the K. K. K. campaign bills and had never been paid. He refused to pay Anderson until Anderson paid him, allowing one bill to offset the other.

Greene county's able prosecuting attorney, J. C. Marshall, prevailed on the Grand Jury to indict Burns for embezzling funds from the Chew Publishing Company, which firm says they have no account against Burns and is not a party to the action taken by Marshall. This brings up a new point of law, yet one that may be in the Prosecutor's mail-order law book. "How can Burns be indicted for embezzling from a firm he does not owe?" If Anderson made an unsecured loan how can there be embezzlement? Meantime Burns admits being a distributor of K. K. K. campaign literature and never was paid for his service and the public is well satisfied in having the linen washed in public at public expense.

IS THE PROPOSED TARIFF WHAT WE WANT?

Congress has spent months discussing the new tariff measure which from indications will be passed within a week. Is it the kind of a tariff measure that will be for the best interests of the country at this time? There is much division even in Republican centers just as business interests are greatly divided.

The first state where one could get a line on public sentiment would be Pennsylvania where a primary was held Tuesday. Senator Grundy, one of the framers of the present bill was up for nomination and his party defeated him: Pennsylvania is regarded a high protection state owing to the coal, steel and manufacturing interests. However thousands of men are out of employment and it is hard to talk high tariff when men are idle.

The farmers have been promised some protection but if some of their leaders have the right slant on the situation the farmer will get a low tariff on what he has to sell and must pay a high tariff on what he must buy.

Canada, France, Germany and other countries are now increasing their tariffs to close their doors to U. S. products in retaliation to the Grundy bill. The proposed measure gives little protection to any industry except steel, what Grundy was most interested in. Scores of other industries must face old world competition on a lower tariff.

We have reached the stage when the tariff is a sectional issue, more selfish than anything else. Everyone wants a tariff on what he has to sell but nothing on what he must buy.

A NEW BRAND OF STATESMANSHIP

The eyes of the Seventh Congressional District are now centered on Washington C. H. Here has been the heart of the brand of statesmanship that has been inflicted on the voters of this large Republican congressional district in the country. We hear it boasted the Seventh district has the largest number of colleges, the most improved farms, the greatest per capita wealth for an agriculture section and a class of citizenship that will measure up with any section of the country.

And with all this record such a district has the worst record for statesmanship of any congressional district represented in Washington, without excepting a single one regardless of party.

The Washington we have in mind is the Washington that was the center of the clearing house for the "Ohio Gang" that robbed and pillored the administration of Warren G. Harding and sent a good man to his grave with a broken heart following betrayal by his supposed friends. Every avenue of that gigantic scandal lead back to Washington C. H. and it was there a Senate investigating committee found leaves of bank ledgers torn out to destroy evidence. It was in this same locality the famous gathering of politicians was found on the "week-end" excursion where liquor and gambling were the chief attractions at the famous "Log Cabin." It was there prominent men engulfed themselves in liquor and after becoming helpless were "boiled out," groomed by a negro servant, and put to bed to sleep off their jag. The scene following the exposures of the little green house on "K" street, Washington, D. C., was only transferred to the famous log cabin in Fayette county.

At no time during the exposure in Washington or the happenings at the log cabin in Fayette county did one Charley Brand ever raise his voice even in humble protest. The fact is Charley Brand has been a part and parcel of the Daugherty political gang in this Seventh Congressional District. It was only a few weeks ago that Mal Daugherty went to his rescue at a political gathering in Springfield, accompanied by D. C. Pemberton, former lobbyist for Cincinnati liquor interests.

It cannot be said that Brand was unaware of the Daugherty scandal following the demand of President Collidge for Harry's resignation. He has been a cog in the Daugherty political machine in the Seventh District. How much longer will the voters of this district continue to be hood-winked by a lot of bombast let loose preceding each election to insure a continuation of this brand of statesmanship? Cheap ro: 's, the pound loaf of bread, attack on insurance rates, new postoffice buildings at the expense of the public, free schools are now and never have been anything but cheap political catch-penny methods of the Seventh District Congressman to win votes. He has never within a term of his office had a single outstanding accomplishment other than playing to the gallery for votes and doing the bidding of profit-taking politicians.

The situation in Washington C. H. has rocked the political friends and associates of Brand into a frenzy. Within a week we find some of them touring the district to see what reaction the bank failure is to the Brand candidacy—why this worry?

Happy Little Octopus
Torturing Witnesses
Water Fine, in Spots
The Family of Five

Not so long ago the government became much excited because Standard Oil was supposed to be worth "almost a billion dollars" and chopped the big octopus up into several small pieces. Each went its separate way, a little octopus on its own account.

Now Mr. Teagle, head of Standard Oil of New Jersey, one of several brothers and sisters, says his company made in 1929 $120,912,794.

That amounts to 5 per cent on $2,400,000,000 and Mr. Teagle says that if the oil industry had been wiser in its methods he would have made a great deal more.

The Yugoslavian King Alexander is accused of allowing police to torture political prisoners. One brought to court in a wheel chair says he was beaten, tied with ropes, whipped with canes, at intervals, all night long. Other prisoners were treated in similar fashion.

Civilization, backward in some places, in others makes progress. Not long ago men accused were tortured everywhere, to make them tell what they knew. Torture is no longer legal.

When Queen Elizabeth decided to cut off the head of her lover, Essex, she was praised for her restraint in not having him put to the torture. His subject submission, and fear of things he might have said under torture about the woman whom he indiscreetly described as an ugly old hunchback, may have caused the unusual gentleness.

If you are still in the stock market or hovering on the edge, like a small boy asking, "How is the water?" know that just now "the water is fine," in spots. Old Fafner, the money dragon, in addition to his pile of gold, has in his interior a gigantic mass of undigested securities.

He is still alive, but certain groans indicate that he is having trouble in spots where the securities were fed to him in millions of shares at a time.

Doctor Tucker of the United States Naval hospital at Norfolk discovers in fruits and vegetables "five good germs," called "the family of five." They give health and strength, supplying vitamins, life elements essential to existence.

They are missing in green fruits, and die when fruit decays, making it poisonous. They are not injured by heat, and exist in canned fruits and vegetables. A vitally important discovery.

The League of Nations appoints a special commission of two Swedes and one Dutchman to study the historic problem of the wailing wall in Jerusalem, cause of so much bitterness between Jews and Arabs.

The Arabs have one of their most important places of worship immediately adjoining the wailing wall, where Jews from all over the world gather to lament the fall of Jerusalem. Arabs have been in possession of Jerusalem for centuries, ever since they beat the Crusaders. And, according to their Koran, it is their holy city also.

There is no universal national feeling in India. Mohammedans hate Hindus and vice versa. There are tens of millions of both. The native-born Indians in the British army fight for Britain against their brothers "loyally."

Three hundred million Asiatics in India are kept in hand by only 200,000 Britishers on the spot, fewer than one-tenth of 1 per cent.

Mr. Macaulay, head of the Canadian Sun Life Assurance company, expects our stocks to regain soon 60 per cent of the losses made in the big 1929 break. He thinks that 1931 probably, 1932 surely, will see "the 1929 peak once more."

The great gambling house at Monte Carlo is sad. Last year's profits amounted to only 575 per cent, lowest in years.

That compares well with the interest rate on a government bond, or dividends on legitimate industrial stocks. But it isn't much for the gambling house.

That 575 per cent interests those that are foolish enough to gamble on horse racing in gambling houses or otherwise. So-called "honest games" are arranged to yield "the house" a certain profit of about 40 per cent on every dollar bet. You can imagine what dishonest games make.

Many remember, when the Panama canal was suggested, how the gigantic sum staggered imagination.

We lent forty times that sum to Europe to help the processes of killing, and staggered nobody but little people that sold Liberty bonds far below par.

Now the War department studies the plans for a bridge over the Hudson river at Fifty-seventh street in New York.

It would cost $180,000,000, but that agitates no one.

KONJOLA PUTS SPEEDY FINISH TO INDIGESTION

Grateful Man Strongly Praises New Medicine as He Tells of His Experience

MR. ADAM KASPER

"Konjola certainly did more for me than any medicine I ever tried in my search for something to relieve me of indigestion," said Mr. Adam Kasper, 3230 West Forty-third street, Cleveland. "No matter what I ate, no matter how light my diet, after every meal came gas, and pains. Constipation, too, added to my misery, and I was worn out, tired all the time and miserable because my system was filled with poisons and impurities."

"A friend told me about Konjola and insisted that I try it. I had lost all faith in medicines but he was so insistent that I made up my mind to give Konjola a chance. The results exceeded my expectations, for today my stomach is performing as it should and constipation has been thoroughly relieved. I do not wonder that Konjola has more than a million friends. I can easily understand why Konjola is the most talked of medicine in America."

When taken for six or eight weeks, Konjola, the new and different medicine, will work wonders that will astonish those who suffer from the stubborn ills of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, and from rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness.

Konjola is sold in Cedarville, Ohio at Prowant & Brown Drug Store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

DRUG TRADE TO SHARE INTEREST IN MEDICINE CO.

Konjola Stock Offer Made To American Druggists; Firm's Growth Amazing

CINCINNATI, OHIO, May 22 (Special)—G. H. Mosby, President and General Manager of the Mosby Medicine Company, one of the world's largest manufacturers of prepared remedies, announced yesterday that eastern banking interests had bought a minority holding in the company. The purchase, however, will in no way affect the present control or management of the concern which remains in the hands of Mr. Mosby. A program of expansion in this country and in foreign markets will be inaugurated immediately. Banking interests will be represented on the Board of Directors by the following: James Imbrie of Imbrie & Co., Bankers, New York; and F. J. Ronelli, representing Imbrie & Co., Cincinnati. Other directors are G. H. Mosby, President and General Manager; W. T. Maynard, Vice-President and Merchandising Director; Charles Mosby, Secretary and Treasurer; and C. O. Rose, Legal Counsel, all of Cincinnati, Ohio. The selected Konjola dealer in Cedarville is the Prosser & Brown Drug Store.

MR. G. H. MOSBY

Application for change of the corporate name from the Mosby Medicine Company to Konjola, Inc. will be filed at the office of the Secretary of State at Columbus.

In discussing the negotiations which led up to the investment of the eastern capital in the Cincinnati concern, Mr. Mosby made the following statement:

"Numerous efforts have been made in the last two years on the part of the company but it has been only trade and banking interests to buy in connection with our present expansion program that a sale of minority interest has seemed desirable. This sale of minority interest not only assures our present expansion program but will also allow, through special arrangement, particularly favorable participation in the ownership of the company to those drug dealers who have been largely responsible for the success of the business.

"The business of the company had its inception seven years ago since which time Konjola has grown to be one of the two or three outstanding successes in the proprietary field.

"During each of the past three years rapidly increasing sales have permitted the company to practically triple its advertising appropriation over that of each preceding year. Last year the company spent approximately $1,700,000 in advertising, nine-tenths of which was spent in newspapers throughout the country.

"Net profits of the company for the year 1929, after charging out to current expense the entire advertising appropriation of $1,700,000.00, were approximately $300,000.00. These net profits represent an increase of over 300% earnings during the past two years.

"For the first four months of the present calendar year we have maintained our advertising expenditure at approximately the 1929 rate and after charging out all advertising to current expense our net earnings are running approximately double those for the year 1929."

The rise of the Mosby Medicine Company and its product is one of the marvels of the medical, drug and business world. It is also amazing to leaders in the advertising business. It has dazzled everyone but the man who did it. Newspaper men in an interview recently granted them by Mr. Mosby revealed some interesting facts concerning the phenomenal growth of the Konjola organization. Seven years ago Gilbert H. Mosby had an idea. This was not an unusual experience for Mr. Mosby had been having ideas ever since he was a kid on the family farm near Versailles, Kentucky, and is still having them but this was the big idea like the thrill that comes once in a lifetime.

Mr. Mosby had been working for several medicine companies. He knew the business from top to bottom. He analyzed the success and failures of different companies and by the process of deduction and elimination he gathered up the best points of all of them, studied the results of his analysis, decided to make the best medicine in the world and stake his fortune (if $2,000.00 can be called a fortune) and his energy on the outcome. So, armed with the bank account of $2,000.00, he rented a small room, installed laboratory equipment about large enough to fit up a modern kitchenette, attached a two-burner gas stove and got ready to operate.

Mosby had already devised the word "Konjola". Then ingredients had to be bought. 32 of these, 22 of them roots and herbs. This purchase put a large dent into the capital. Mosby was organizer, mixer, bottler, labeler, and most everything; also he was the sales manager and traveling representative.

When the first batch of Konjola emerged from the busy little two-burner stove Mosby made a quick shift from overalls to a one hundred dollar suit of clothes and had the first shipment of Konjola sent to Manila, Indiana, and the career of Konjola was launched in a drug store in the Hoosier state with Mosby, sole owner and originator of the medicine, as the original Konjola Man.

More than ten million bottles have been sold since the inception of the business. These are staggering figures but are easily explained when one knows Mosby and his forcible character.

One of the newspaper men asked Mr. Mosby to what he attributed his marvelous success. He modestly replied that whatever success he had made was due to the merits of Konjola and the selling powers of newspaper advertising, properly and consistently applied.

Study Electricity On 13 Ohio Farms

Data From Experimental Line Embodied In A New Bulletin

Records of the amount of electricity used for light, heat, and power, on 13 Ohio farms southeast of Marysville, have been compiled and interpreted in a new bulletin, "Using Electricity on Ohio Farms" by Prof. G. W. McCuen and I. P. Blauser of the department of agricultural engineering of the Ohio State University. The bulletin is published and distributed by the Agricultural Extension Service of the University.

The data in the bulletin were obtained through a three-year study on an experimental line established for the purpose. The average yearly cost of the electricity ranged from $62.82 on one farm to $141.39 on another. The farm using the most electricity was equipped with an electric range, a refrigerator, water heater, washing machine, vacuum sweeper, coffee percolator, electric iron, fan, toaster, heating pad, glow heater, curling iron, a deep well water system and a shallow well water system, a milk cooler, a milk perator with a circulating pump, a milking machine, a five-horsepower motor used for a feed grinder and corn sheller, and a one-fourth horsepower utility motor.

The farm with the $62.82 annual bill was equipped with range, washing machine, iron, sweeper, waffle iron, percolator, fan, glow heater, shallow well water system, and a three-horsepower motor used on a feed grinder.

Costs of electricity vary in different localities, it is pointed out in the bulletin, and therefore the figures given apply only to the experimental line on which they were gathered.

A flower garden furnishing bloom, foliage, and color the year round, as well as cut flowers from April to September, is a possibility with shrubs alone, asserts Victor H. Ries of the Agricultural Extension Service of the Ohio State University here.

"Better still, the shrubs are all hardy and bloom every year with but little care," says Ries. "The following shrubs are among the finest: Buddleia, Flowering Quince, Forsythia, Deutzia, Hibiscus, Hydrangea, Kerria, Bush Honeysuckle, Mock-orange, Sorbaria, Spiraea, Chinese Lilac, Persian Lilac, and late lilac, Tamarix, Viburnum carlesii, Japanese snowball, and Weigela."

JESUS DESCRIBES THE FUTURE OF THE KINGDOM

LEBON TEXT—Matthew 24:1-35:13
(Print 24:1-35:13)
GOLDEN TEXT—Take ye heed, watch and pray; for ye know not when the time is.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Being Ready to Help.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Being Ready.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—
Being Ready.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—
Christian Preparation.

1. The Prophetic View of the Course of Time from Christ's Crucifixion to His Second Coming (24:1-31).
The order of events in this time are in general as follows:

1. The moral condition of the world during Christ's absence. (vv. 1-14).
This is the period covered by the parables of chapter 13.

2. The appearance of the Anti-christ (vv. 15-23).

3. The great advent (vv. 27-31).
In connection with this advent there will be mighty convulsions of nature, the mourning of the tribes of the earth, and the gathering of the elect.

4. Warnings to God's people in view of the great advent (vv. 32-35).
The time of this advent is unknown and on the part of many unexpected.

5. Instruction to believers in view of the unexpectedness of Christ's coming (25:1-30).

II. Behavior of Believers in View of the Coming of the Lord (25:1-33).
The teaching in the parable of the ten virgins has continuous application in the present time (I Thess. 5:1-6; Titus 2:11-13).

1. The equipment of the virgins
(vv. 1-5).

(1) The foolish virgins took lamps, but no oil with them (v. 8). Lamps signify Christian profession (Matt.
5:16) and oil the Holy Spirit (Zech.
14). Having lamps but no oil shows that they were professors of religion, without possessing its reality. The Christian life is sustained by the Holy Spirit. As soon as a man is regenerated, the Holy Spirit takes up His abode with him. The Spirit's indwelling therefore, is an advance work upon regeneration. The proof that one is a child of God is that he has the Holy Spirit dwelling within him. (Rom. 8:9). The foolish virgins were professors, but not possessors.

(2) The wise virgins possessed both lamps and oil (v. 4). They backed their profession with a real life of righteousness. Both the wise and the foolish virgins slumbered and slept.
This shows that as the present age lengthens, the real and the professing church will cease looking for the coming of the Lord. It is unspeakably sad that so many, even of God's chosen—the wise virgins—should give up the expectancy of the return of the Lord.

2. The coming of the bridegroom
(vv. 6-10).

(1) The midnight cry (v. 8). In the midst of the night when all the virgins were asleep the cry was heard.
"Behold the bridegroom cometh." Who knows but that the time of this cry is now close upon us? (2) Activity of the virgins (v. 9). "They all arose and trimmed their lamps." There will be great activity when the Lord comes on the part of both believers and those who only make a profession. It will be a day when the reality of one's faith will be tested. (3) The foolish virgins' request of the wise to share their oil (vv. 8, 9). The revelation of Christ will make manifest the un-wisdom of our faith and expose the folly of mere profession. When the Lord comes, it will be too late to mend one's ways. (4) The wise enter to the marriage (v. 10). While the foolish were seeking to amend their ways—trying to buy oil—the bridegroom came, and those who were ready were admitted to the marriage.

(5) The pitiful petition of the foolish virgins (v. 11). They begged the Lord to open the door. (6) The awful judgment (v. 12). The Lord declared, "I know you not."

3. The solemn obligation (v. 13).
"Watch, for ye know not the day nor the hour when the Son of man cometh." Two solemn facts should engage the attention of every one.

(1) Entering with Christ to the marriage depends upon faithfulness to the end. If oil and light be wanting when Christ comes, no admittance will be granted to the heavenly banquet. (2) Borrowed religion will not avail at that day. Despite the value of godly companions and associates, they can render no service in the day of Jesus Christ. Personal contact with the Lord Jesus through faith in His blood is the absolute essential.

These Who Do Not Sleep
While many are sleeping and taking it easy, we, as overseers, are struggling under the burden resting upon us, weeping and warning and begging for help to battle against the forces of evil around us.—John R. Moff.

Hear That Voice
How hard it is to get down to that point where we hear the voice which the sheep always know! Be not content until you have heard that voice!—
John R. Moff.

Character Everything Character must stand behind and back up everything—the sermon, the poem, the picture, the play. None of them is worth a straw without it.—
J. G. Holland.

Old Distillery Is Now Soybean Mill

Owners Are Manufacturing Oil
From Soybeans For Use in Industrial Products

With a comparatively small amount of refitting and remodeling, a Cincinnati plant which once turned out whiskey by the barrel, is now being used in the manufacture of industrial products of the soybean. The plant is the old Clifton Springs Distillery, which has been purchased and adapted by a company interested in the purchase and utilization of soybeans in industry. Part of the plant is also used as a grain elevator.

Like other Ohio companies, the owners of the old distillery are contracting in advance for the soybeans, offering farmers a minimum price for their crops. Soybeans as a cash grain crop are receiving new consideration from Ohio farmers so placed as to be able to grow and sell them profitably.
"One of the problems that the soybean miller has to work out is promoting the use of soybean oil in many industries in which it can be used to advantage but in which it is new and therefore received with some reluctance," said an officer of the Cincinnati company. "At a recent meeting in Chicago of soybean oil producers, attended by more than 90 per cent of the men in the industry, the statement was made by a professor from the University of Illinois, that if farmers and others interested would buy only paint containing not less than 15 per cent of soybean oil, that outlet alone would provide for a large portion of the annual production."

Aspire and Elevate Did you ever hear of a man who had striven all his life faithfully and singly toward an object and in no measure obtained it? If a man constantly aspires, is he not elevated? Did ever a man try heroism, magnanimity, truth, sincerity, and find that there was no advantage in them—that it was a vain endeavor?—H. D. Thor-

On any smooth road get your car going about 25 miles per hour. Now advance the spark to the limit and keep the gas throttle wide open; then with your hand brake, gradually diminish the speed of the car until a perceptible motor knock is heard. At this exact point notice the miles per hour and set down this

The knocking point will vary in different motors, but the comparison of different fuels will be the same.
Keep a record of the speedometer readings for each

Mr. Cal Ewry and son, Fred, visited in Piqua, Sunday, being called there by an accident that befell a cousin in a plaining mill.

Mrs. Lucy McClellan is reported in a very critical condition. Miss Marjorie McClellan of Cleveland arrived yesterday to be with her grandmother.

A recital was given by pupils of the Department of Music in the First Presbyterian church, Wednesday evening, that pleased an interesting audience. Miss Gertrude Hamman, Miss Genevieve Jamieson, Mrs. Cammie Gormley and Marion Hostetler had parts on the program. There was both vocal and instrumental as well as organ selections.

Members of the Cedarville High School will keep in mind the annual banquet to the senior class at the high school this Friday evening. Election of officers for the coming year will also take place.

The final days for class work at the college are drawing near and examinations will prevail next week. The annual college picnic is scheduled for today, May 23rd. Commencement will take place Friday, June 6th.

You will want your home painted or decorated on the inside this spring. Call on Elmer Jurkat for estimates.

A piano graduate recital will be given by Miss Arcella Phillips, assisted by Miss Phillips and Miss Mary Ruth Wham, Thursday evening, May 23 at 8:15 in the Presbyterian church. All are cordially invited.

Dr. W. R. McChesney preached last Sabbath in the Presbyterian church in Sidney and on Monday went to Pittsburgh in the interest of the College. He gave commencement addresses at Staunton township high school Tuesday; Pittsburgh, Wednesday; Middleburgh, Thursday and goes on to Duaneburgh, N. Y., to attend R. P. Seminary.

The Cedar Cliff Chapter of the D. A. R. is arranging for Memorial Services to be held at 11 o'clock on Decoration Day at the old Stevenson Cemetery. Music, an address and other exercises are to be a part of the program. The public is urged to attend especially those having friends and relatives interred there. There are fifty soldiers buried in this old neglected burying ground and the members of the local chapter of the D. A. R. are devoting a great deal of time and interest to the reclaiming of this historic spot. Any members or others having flowers for this cemetery may leave them at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Barber.

Rates Fixed For Sewer and Water Service Connections

The Board of Public Affairs has established a rate of $15 for water and $10 for sewer for service connections and property owners have the opportunity of paying the charge when the tap is made or it can be charged to the property and paid with the taxes. By paying it now property owners will save the interest charges and provide rotating funds for the continuance of the work. If not enough is paid the village must finance with borrowed money and all charges will be added in addition to the above established price.

The Board will install standard equipment for this service and will use copper pipe which is now on a low market and selling what steel pipe sold for some months back. As copper pipe will last much longer than steel pipe it will be giving property owners service connections far better than that installed in any of the other towns in this section that has municipal water.

The contract for labor has been let to Ed Harper, who for many years was connected with the Logan Gas Co., as division superintendent on repair and construction. All streets other than Main, will have service lines laid to the curb. As the mains on Main street will be under the walks the service will be brought to the property line. As we understand it the Board can not only give a better service connection by using copper pipe but at prices lower than Yellow Springs and Osborn.

J. G. McCorkell, clerk of the Board, is making a canvass of property owners to know how many want immediate service connections. With property owners on Main street all service should be made now at the price named. If not made now and connection is made later it will require tearing up cement walks where the walks extend to the property line. This would be an added expense and for that reason the connections should be made while the walks are torn up.

The 4-H Food and Clothing Clubs will hold their organization meetings, this Saturday afternoon, May 24, at 2:30, in the basement of the library. The books will be given out at this meeting and each girl wishing to join either of these clubs is asked to be present to receive her instructions so she can begin her work as soon as possible. Mrs. Raymond Williamson and Mabel Stormont will be leaders of the clubs again this year.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

CALLING THEM X-RAYS

WHO put the X in X-rays? Truly one of the greatest discoveries of the age in the X-ray. For years medical men, surgeons and scientists groped in darkness for the ray that would light to curative agencies the ways within us that are hidden from the eye. For years they failed.

And then one Wilhelm Roentgen, a professor in a German university, announced to the world that he had discovered a ray which would make it possible not only to make transparent the skeleton as an aid to diagnosis, but which would have within itself wonderful curative powers for certain diseases.

Electricity, Iridium and platinum are used in X-ray work. But Roentgen himself was not certain of the exact nature of the rays. What then more natural than that the professor, daily confronted with problems in mathematics, chemistry and physics, should choose the term used in the realm of science to represent the unknown quantity—X?

Why We Do What We Do

by M. K. THOMSON, Ph. D.

WHY WE HAVE A HUNCH

NOW and then we come to a decision without knowing why or how. We say we had a hunch.

This hunch is technically known as intuition. One definition of intuition is the grasp of truth directly and immediately without the usual means of sensory experience. Ordinarily we know things by coming in contact with them through the eye, or ear, or tongue, or nose, or any or several of the nine senses. But intuition is supposed to give us knowledge without this purpose.

The psychologists do not believe in intuition in this sense. They say that originally all experience and knowledge come through the gateway of the senses. They call this intuition or hunch a feeling. Hence, it is more accurate to say that we do not know why we should do such and such a thing, but we have a feeling that we should.

Feeling, then, is a vague, unlocalized impression that is sometimes very strong but never vivid and definite. We cannot put our fingers on it and say just what it is. That is the nature of all feeling. The moment a feeling becomes definite enough we call it a sensation, or a memory, or image, or some other mental factor.

The hunch is not so mysterious as it may seem. It is a vague feeling that may later become more definite and vivid. It is based on partial knowledge vaguely recalled.

Now is the hunch always as reliable as most people imagine? It is about as accurate as a vague, half-recalled impression is capable of being, and that is all.

We have a hunch because at times that is all we can have. We lack the knowledge and have to depend upon a vague feeling and trust to luck that the impression is true to the facts.

The Cedarville Community Club

The value to the community at large in having the local graduates remain as a part of the social and business life of the community is so important that every effort should be used to accomplish it. The business men, the professional men, the laboring men of the community ask them to "sell" their home town wherever their vocation may take them.
